

Scripture Memorization Cards

Unshakable Kids | Inspired-Motherhood.com

Early in a child's life, seeds of identity are planted. When kids know who they are, they're less likely to give into temptation or become discouraged by life's obstacles. So as parents, we must ask ourselves, who does my child see themselves as?

One of the best ways to cultivate a biblical identity in our children is by memorizing scripture. God's Word is alive and sharper than a double-edged sword (Hebrews 4:12).

Psalms 119:10-16 (MSG) says it perfectly:

How can a young person live a clean life?
By carefully reading the map of your Word.
I'm single-minded in pursuit of you;
don't let me miss the road signs you've posted.
I've banked your promises in the vault of my heart
so I won't sin myself bankrupt.
Be blessed, God;
train me in your ways of wise living.
I'll transfer to my lips
all the counsel that comes from your mouth;
I delight far more in what you tell me about living
than in gathering a pile of riches.
I ponder every morsel of wisdom from you,
I attentively watch how you've done it.
I relish everything you've told me of life,
I won't forget a word of it.

Use these scripture cards to hide God's Word in your heart and in the heart of your children.

You'll notice each scripture has a complete version and first-letter version. Start with the full text, then move to the first-letter text to help you as a memory aid.

You can print the scripture on double-sided cardstock. Then trim and laminate the cards to help your family memorize God's Word at-home or on-the-go.

So God created man
in His own image;
in the image of God
He created him; male and female He created them.

Therefore,
if anyone is in Christ,
he is a new creation;
old things have
passed away; behold,
all things have
become new.
